EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

EASTER SUNDAY

Are You Ready for the Feast of Divine Mercy?

Sunday, April 7

According to Our Lord's revelations to St. Faustina regarding this Feast, He wants to pour out all of His tender Mercy upon us on that day, including an awesome promise: "The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699)

"That means not only is the person forgiven for any mortal or venial sins they may have committed, but also that they will receive a complete remission of the temporal punishment due for sin – that is, no Purgatory." (How to Prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday MSF leaflet)

Here is how He wants us to prepare to receive that great gift: Sincerely repent of all our sins. Go to confession (preferably before the Feast). Place our complete trust in Jesus. Be merciful to others through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf. (Divine Mercy LFFM leaflet)

"Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M."

The Divine Mercy Novena as requested by Our Lord is a good way to pray for others! It begins on Good Friday and ends on the Saturday before the Feast.

Check the entrances and the table in the gathering area for the Novena pamphlets and other info on Divine Mercy.
